

Fancy a fun, adventurous activity weekend?

Fancy winding some leaders up, and helping select the leader team that will take Welsh Scouts (including maybe you) to the 2015 World Scout Jamboree in Japan??

We are holding a camping weekend in June, to aide in the selection of the team of adults to lead the Welsh Units attending the 23rd World Scout Jamboree.

To make this work, we need YOU!!!! Explorer Scouts aged 14-18 to form mock Jamboree Units, so we can get an idea of who the right people to lead the units are.

In return, you will get a full camping weekend, with an exciting programme, and the opportunity to get your own back on leaders by putting them into all sorts of (staged) situations and being generally mean!!

When: Saturday June 22nd 10am - Sunday June 23rd 2pm

Where: A field in Gwent - location to be communicated soon — the leaders being assessed don't even know yet!

Cost: £10 per person, to include camp fees and food
